Accessing water and sanitation in Benin, collecting rainwater in Colombia, maintaining water quality in Bangladesh, campaigning against water commoditisation in Italy...

Based on its member organisations’ activities around the world, Emmaus International advocates community-based and public management of water — a basic right for all.