We must develop “humanist” non-profit-making work that can give us purpose and something to live for.

Patrick Aronsson, President of Emmaus International

Economists have been warned that the current economic crisis risks pushing millions into poverty. As we look at the world we live in, we see that the idea of ‘sustainability’ is gaining momentum. We are called upon to think about how we can make the world a better place for all. We need to consider how we can work together to create a more equitable and just society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone.

Economists on the move

APRIL

Advising about a Humanitarian Aid Program

"In this world, we see the suffering of many people. It is essential that we take action to help those in need. We need to work together to create a world where everyone has access to basic needs such as food, water, and healthcare. It is important that we think about how we can work towards a more equal society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone.

May

Recent Developments in Emmaus Research

"We need to consider how we can work together to create a more equitable and just society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone. We need to work towards a world where everyone has access to basic needs such as food, water, and healthcare. It is important to think about how we can work towards a more equal society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone.

June

Economists and the IMF Professional Training Association (Columbia)

"It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone. We need to work towards a world where everyone has access to basic needs such as food, water, and healthcare. It is important to think about how we can work towards a more equal society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone.

July

Emmaus and the World"s Social Economy

"We need to work towards a world where everyone has access to basic needs such as food, water, and healthcare. It is important to think about how we can work towards a more equal society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone.

August

Europe: The Emmaus Italia Conference

"It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone. We need to work towards a world where everyone has access to basic needs such as food, water, and healthcare. It is important to think about how we can work towards a more equal society. It is essential that we think about the future and how we can create a better world for everyone.

President of Emmaus UK, Insurer for Emmaus Europe and Emmaus International Board Member, Michael Flahas is also a member of the working group on ethical finance. Here, he explains the group’s goals and ideas.

New get a call... Gloucestershire... we

"We also need to discover, to rediscover, that money, social status and high-paid jobs are not what is essential in life. That there are other values, other ways of living, other ways of being useful and gaining social recognition. We must develop “humanist”, non-profit-making work that can give us purpose and something to live for.""