When it comes to bread – the fruit of everyone’s labour, that we know anew that we are brothers.

A closer look… 1st Forum of the Organisations of Lake Nokoué

Emmaus International organised a work camp of the African Region, in Cotonou, Benin. Before setting off, the 50 participants from 15 countries were hosted at Nokoué Lake, put together the charge of the promotion of hygiene and sanitation; the Association for Children and Youth, the Circle of Women and Youth for Development (France), took part in every activity, including the training of leaders and citizens to withdraw from banks of Lake Nokoué.

Emmaus International organised a work camp of the African Region, in Cotonou, Benin. Before setting off, the 50 participants from 15 countries were hosted at Nokoué Lake, put together the charge of the promotion of hygiene and sanitation; the Association for Children and Youth, the Circle of Women and Youth for Development (France), took part in every activity, including the training of leaders and citizens to withdraw from banks of Lake Nokoué.

Emmaus International organised a work camp of the African Region, in Cotonou, Benin. Before setting off, the 50 participants from 15 countries were hosted at Nokoué Lake, put together the charge of the promotion of hygiene and sanitation; the Association for Children and Youth, the Circle of Women and Youth for Development (France), took part in every activity, including the training of leaders and citizens to withdraw from banks of Lake Nokoué.

Emmaus International organised a work camp of the African Region, in Cotonou, Benin. Before setting off, the 50 participants from 15 countries were hosted at Nokoué Lake, put together the charge of the promotion of hygiene and sanitation; the Association for Children and Youth, the Circle of Women and Youth for Development (France), took part in every activity, including the training of leaders and citizens to withdraw from banks of Lake Nokoué.

Emmaus International organised a work camp of the African Region, in Cotonou, Benin. Before setting off, the 50 participants from 15 countries were hosted at Nokoué Lake, put together the charge of the promotion of hygiene and sanitation; the Association for Children and Youth, the Circle of Women and Youth for Development (France), took part in every activity, including the training of leaders and citizens to withdraw from banks of Lake Nokoué.

Emmaus International organised a work camp of the African Region, in Cotonou, Benin. Before setting off, the 50 participants from 15 countries were hosted at Nokoué Lake, put together the charge of the promotion of hygiene and sanitation; the Association for Children and Youth, the Circle of Women and Youth for Development (France), took part in every activity, including the training of leaders and citizens to withdraw from banks of Lake Nokoué.