

→ Emmaus International campaigns for an ethical and solidarity economy to ensure access to fundamental rights, social and environmental justice for a sustainable world, and peace and freedom of movement and residence for universal citizenship.

→ All around the world, the Emmaus groups run local income-generating activities with people experiencing social exclusion, to help them regain access to their fundamental rights.

Together, we are emmaus!

